POLICE SEEKING PUBLIC ASSISTANCE TO LOCATE MISSING ORANGEVILLE WOMAN

(ORANGEVILLE, ON) – Members of the Orangeville Police Service responded to a complaint of a suspicious vehicle parked in an alley way near Broadway Street in downtown Orangeville at approximately 10 AM this morning, August 30, 2010.

At that location officers found an abandoned vehicle which had what appeared to be blood on it. As a result of attending the residence of the registered owner on Spring Street in Orangeville police located at that location more of what appears to be blood.

Today, family members have reported to police that Sonia VARASCHIN, 42 years of Orangeville has not been seen since yesterday evening.

Police are concerned for her well-being and are urging anyone with information as to the whereabouts of Sonia VARASCHIN to contact the Orangeville Police Service at (519) 941-2522 or their closest police service. The public can also make an anonymous call to Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS).

The Orangeville PS is working in partnership with the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) Criminal Investigation Branch (CIB).
