Home Occupations explained

A home occupation should not alter the residential nature of the neighbourhood in which it is located. All home occupations are subject to limitations intended to minimize any negative impacts on the neighbourhood.

These limitations include:

- 1) No accessory buildings (garages, sheds, etc.) may be used for the home occupation.
- 2) External storage, exposure, advertising and displays are prohibited.
- 3) The only signage permitted is a non-illuminated wall sign with a maximum area of 0.2 square metres (2.15 sq. ft.), identifying the building, occupants or the home occupation.
- 4) The floor area is limited to: maximum 30 square metres (322.9 sq. ft.) or maximum 25% of the floor area of the dwelling, whichever is smaller. There is an exception for bed and breakfasts which have a 3 bedroom maximum limit.
- 5) No mechanical equipment that creates a nuisance through noise, vibration or interference with television or radio reception may be used.
- 6) Maximum 1 non-resident employee.
- 7) The minimum parking requirements for all home occupations except bed and breakfasts are: 1 parking space plus one space for a non-resident employee. A bed and breakfast must provide 1 parking space for each guest bedroom that exists. These requirements are in addition to the 1 space required for each dwelling.

A parking space must be at least 2.7 metres by 5.5 metres (8'10¼" x 18½") in size and must be located entirely on your property.

- 8) Only one home occupation is permitted per dwelling unit.

This summary is intended for information purposes only. Zoning By-law 22-90 shall be considered the official version and takes precedence.
