

Responsibilities Under the Police Services Act

Section 10(9) of the Police Services Act identifies the following responsibilities for the Town of Orangeville Police Services Board:

- Participate in the selection of the Detachment Commander.
- Determine objectives and priorities for police services, after consultation with the Detachment Commander.
- Establish, after consultation with the Detachment Commander, any local policies with respect to police services (but the Board shall not establish provincial policies for the Ontario Provincial Police with respect to police services).
- Monitor the performance of the Detachment Commander.
- Receive regular reports from the Detachment Commander on disclosures and decisions made under section 49 (secondary activities).
- Review the Detachment Commander's administration of the complaints system under Part V and receive regular reports from the Detachment Commander on his or her administration of the complaints system.
