

Proclamation

April 2, 2020

World Autism Awareness Day

I, Mayor Sandy Brown, do hereby proclaim April 2, 2020, as “World Autism Awareness Day” in the Town of Orangeville;

Whereas, the World Autism Awareness Day Act states that throughout Canada, in each and every year, the second day of April shall be known as World Autism Awareness Day; and

Whereas, Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) affects more than 135,000 Ontarians on the autism spectrum and ASD is now recognized as the most common neurological disorder affecting 1 in every 66 children, as well as their friends, family and community; and

Whereas, ASD is a spectrum disorder, which means it not only manifests itself differently in every individual in whom it appears, but its characteristics will change over the life of each individual as well. A child with ASD will become an adult with ASD; and

Whereas, Autism Ontario and its chapters share common goals of providing information and education, supporting research, advocating for programs and services for the autism community and is dedicated to increasing public awareness about autism and the day-to-day issues faced by individuals with autism, their families, and the professionals with whom they interact,

Now Therefore, April 2, 2020 is proclaimed World Autism Awareness Day in the Town of Orangeville, and I urge all citizens of our community to become more aware and educated concerning ASD.
