

Proclamation

November 1 to 7, 2020

Crime Prevention Week

Whereas, Crime Prevention Week provides an opportunity to showcase the successful collaborative efforts between police services, community organizations and municipalities as they work together towards a common goal of preventing crime and creating safe, resilient communities across Ontario; and

Whereas, with the ongoing circumstances surrounding COVID-19, the police services and other frontline service providers are currently facing competing and challenging priorities in their communities and it is important to continue to work together to enhance the safety and well-being for Ontarians and have a positive impact in the community.

Whereas, this year's provincial theme is "Serving Ontario, Protecting Communities" enabling police services to promote the benefits of a holistic community approach to addressing local crime and issues related to safety and well-being.

Whereas, Crime Prevention Week raises awareness and promotes the message that "Everyone plays a role in preventing crime and keeping Ontarians safe"; and

Whereas, police services across the province will be using the hashtag #CPWeek2020 to promote their local initiatives, online events and activities that align with the provincial theme and demonstrate collaborative approach to crime prevention and overall community safety and well-being; and

Now Therefore, I, Mayor Sandy Brown, do hereby proclaim November 1 to 7, 2020, as "Crime Prevention Week" in the Town of Orangeville.

Sandy Brown
Mayor
