

Proclamation

May 8 to 14, 2022

Police Week

I, Mayor Sandy Brown, on behalf of Council, do hereby proclaim May 8 to 14, 2022 as “Police Week” in the Town of Orangeville;

Whereas, Police Week is an annual recognition week that is focused on increasing community awareness and acknowledgement of police services, while strengthening partnerships between police and the community they serve;

Whereas, May 8 to 14, 2022 provides an opportunity to highlight all members of police services that contribute to keeping Ontario’s communities safe and resilient. With the ongoing circumstances concerning COVID-19, police service personnel, and their community partners, are playing critical roles in protecting Ontarians;

Whereas, the Town of Orangeville acknowledges the courageous efforts of the police, as well as other frontline service providers, for their commitment in supporting the pandemic response;

Whereas, the Province of Ontario has designated May 8 to 14, 2022 as Police Week to promote the profession of policing in Ontario and commend the police staff for their dedication and commitment in keeping our communities safe.

Now Therefore, I encourage all citizen of our community to recognize “Police Week” and to acknowledge and thank the police for their commitment and efforts in keeping our Town safe.

---

Sandy Brown
Mayor