

Proclamation

May 14 to 20, 2023

National Police Week

I, Mayor Lisa Post, on behalf of Council, do hereby proclaim May 14 to 20, 2023 as “National Police Week” in the Town of Orangeville; and

Whereas, the Province of Ontario designated May 14 to 20, 2023 as National Police Week to promote the profession of policing in Ontario and commend the police staff for their dedication and commitment in keeping our communities safe; and

Whereas, National Police Week is an annual recognition week that is focused on increasing community awareness and acknowledgement of police services, while strengthening partnerships between police and the community they serve; and

Whereas, the theme for 2023 National Police Week is “Committed to Service” and this week provides an opportunity to highlight all members of police services that contribute to keeping Ontario’s communities safe and resilient; and

Whereas, the Town of Orangeville acknowledges the courageous efforts of the police, as well as other frontline service providers, for their commitment to working towards a stronger, safer, brighter future for all; and

Now Therefore, I encourage all citizen of our community to recognize “National Police Week” and to acknowledge and thank the police for their commitment and efforts in keeping our Town safe.

Lisa Post
Mayor
