

Proclamation

October is Canadian Public Library Month October 19-25, 2025 is Ontario Library Week

I, Mayor Lisa Post, on behalf of Council, and I, Peter LeBlanc, on behalf of the Library Board do hereby proclaim the month of October as “Canadian Public Library Month” and October 19 to 25 as “Ontario Public Library Week” in the Town of Orangeville;

Whereas, Libraries are vibrant places where Canadians visit to learn, share ideas and meet fellow residents; and

Whereas, Orangeville Public Library’s vision is that our library is a place for everyone to connect and discover, where learning and possibility allows each member to soar; and

Whereas, Orangeville Public Library builds community through partnerships, championing inclusivity, freedom of expression and ensuring equitable access for all; and

Whereas, Orangeville Public Library ignites curiosity and boosts discovery through life-long learning with books, technology, programs and dynamic spaces; and

Now Therefore, I, Mayor Lisa Post, on behalf of Council, and I, Peter LeBlanc, on behalf of the Library Board urge all citizens to celebrate both Canadian Library Month and Ontario Library Week and to participate in the special activities planned in the Town of Orangeville.
