

Public Art Scavenger Hunt

You're on a quest to find 16 pieces of public art in central Orangeville. Follow the same route as the Central West Public Art Tour to admire tree sculptures, utility box art, statues and murals while you solve the clues for each piece.

Clue #1: Stay dry Look for the mural located on the side of Orangeville Outlet Centre. It shows a photograph of Mill Creek from the 1800s. How many chimneys are on the big white house? Answer: _____	Clue #2: Snow fun In Kay Cee Gardens, the first utility box you will find is called Snow Fun. How many pieces of coal make up the snowman's eyes, mouth and buttons? Answer: _____	Clue #3: Flower power Near the gazebo, this utility box features an abstract painting of bright florals. Read the description of the box and name the flower shown in the artwork. Answer: _____	Clue #4: Puppy love Before the bridge, don't miss this bright utility box featuring dogs, cats, and their owners. Each side has three dogs. Two of them have the same ear colour. What colour is it? Answer: _____
Clue #5: Take a ride The next utility box shows a young boy on a ride through the rural countryside of Dufferin County. Read the description of the box and name the type of vehicle the boy is riding. Answer: _____	Clue #6: Wish upon a star After the bridge, you'll find a utility box called Gazing Upwards. Staring up at the night sky in wonder, there are six children shown. One is wearing a toque. What colour is it? Answer: _____	Clue #7: Wise words Take a detour east on York Street to find a tree sculpture called Tree of Life. The rescued ash tree features a dove, a book, and a tree. What does the book say? Answer: _____	Clue #8: Wind power Cross Broadway at Clara Street to find a utility box. Called the Turbines of Amaranth, the piece shows wind as a new source of electricity for the region. How many turbines are displayed? Answer: _____
Clue #9: Mighty eagle The Eagle tree sculpture intensely watches over the intersection. Nothing will get by him! How many branches grow off of the eagle's tree perch? Answer: _____	Clue #10: For the birds More birds are perched down the street. The sculpture was carved from one single white pine log. How many pelicans are shown? Answer: _____	Clue #11: Summer treat Across the street, the sculpture of an ice cream cone reminds us of simple pleasures. If you could eat a cone that size, what flavour would you choose? All answers accepted! Answer: _____	Clue #12: Who could it be? Head north on Ada Street and east on Zina Street. Four animals make their home on a tree sculpture called Canadian Nature. Which animal appears twice? Answer: _____
Clue #13: Dog days Tribute to Dogs is an aptly named tree sculpture that shows the two dogs owned by the family who sponsored the piece. What colour is the collar worn by the Labrador? Answer: _____	Clue #14: Meow-zers Across the street, the cats are out! Three cats are shown. One is ready to pounce, and one is climbing. What is the third cat doing? Answer: _____	Clue #15: Fashionista Head back to Broadway to visit The Victorian Lady standing elegantly in front of the McKittrick House. What is she holding in her hand? Answer: _____	Clue #16: Blues brothers The Musicians in this tree sculpture are inspired by Orangeville's Blues and Jazz Festival. If you could play any instrument expertly, what would it be? All answers accepted! Answer: _____

Check your answers by scanning this code or visiting loveorangeville.ca

Share your adventure @orangevilletourism and by using #loveorangeville